Re: Stay At Home Order

The Stay at Home Order by Governor Evers will close the NOW School District Building down, starting tomorrow, Tuesday, March 24. The only exception right now is the school food service program. If the food service program is recognized as an "Essential Service", it will continue. Currently I do not know if food service is considered essential. Myself and many of my Superintendent Colleagues are trying to get answers to this question. I will keep you all posted.
