Wilton Public Library News: Gina Rae – Library Director – wiltonlibrary@wrlsweb.org (608)435-6710

- 📖 We'd like to recognize our in-home daycare providers. Thank you, Kathy Nelson & Judy Nofsinger, for having books available to your daycare children and to Scott & Brice for helping with the logistics. Your family's willingness to care for the families of others is a valuable part of this community.
- 📖 There will be no play group on May 31st or June 7th. Summer reading program for all ages will begin on Wednesday, June 14th from 10-11:30 and we will continue, on Wednesdays, at the same time, all summer long.

- 📖 We have two therapy dogs in our area that would love to be read to by your child. These dogs are safe, certified, and insured for working with children or adults. Call the library for arrangements. (608)435-6710
- 📖 Our homeschool group is ending their school year with a swim party on May 26th. If you are interested in participating, please call the library so you can join this cooperative effort.
- 📖 The library's chess club: The Check Mates usually meet the first and third Tuesday of every month, our next meeting is June 6th, at 4pm. Players of all levels of experience are invited to attend.
- 📖 A shout out here for Henry Amberson, who has surpassed his 300th book before he starts kindergarten! Preschoolers continue to sign up for 1000 Books Before Kindergarten. More information can be found at the library.
